

GaRID Presents:

Interpreting in the Domestic Violence Setting; Self Care: Alleviating the Effects of Vicarious Trauma

May 17, 2014 9 am to 3 pm

Location:

Georgia Council for the Hearing Impaired (GACHI)
4151 Memorial Drive- Suite 103-B
Decatur, GA 30032

Presenter:

Kristin Grace, LCSW, NIC

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION: ASL/English interpreters need to be prepared to balance compassion while thoughtfully maintaining the tenets of the NAD/RID CPC. Come learn how to act as a cultural mediator and not a helper. Learn the signs and symptoms of trauma, and nuances of the setting to achieve successful interpreting outcomes by minimizing linguistic errors and omissions.

PRESENTER: Kristin Grace, LCSW, NIC hails from the great state of Illinois, where she worked at Chicago's Rape Victim Advocates- Deaf program from 2001-2003 as a therapist and a certified Rape Crisis Counselor in the ER setting. She later achieved the LCSW (clinical license) and worked as a LCSW in a variety of social service environments such as private practice, DFACS and ADA State Monitoring. While simultaneously working as a clinician, Kristin worked as an ASL/English interpreter, predominantly in the medical and post-secondary settings. Kristin currently works in private practice as a LCSW for Deaf individuals and in the VRS setting as a VI. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her family, taking trips to the beach and learning about living green and environmental sustainability.

This Professional Studies program is offered for .55 RID CEUs.

Target audience: Working ASL/English Intepreters; this workshop will be presented in ASL.
